Sponsored by Plato's Closet

Starring: Ben Stiller, Owen Wilson, Will Ferrell

Derek Zoolander is an intellectually challenged but bone structure-blessed male model who's despondent after being eclipsed in popularity by an equally vacuous rival, Hansel. Upon his reluctant retirement, Derek is invited to a day spa by previously standoffish fashion designer Jacobim Mugatu where the befuddled model is brainwashed by the mysterious Katinka into assassinating the prime minister of Malaysia.

June 18      RENT, Rated PG-13; 135 minutes; 2005

Sponsored by Pride Week

Starring: Rosario Dawson, Adam Pascal, Idina Menzel

This rock opera tells the story of one year in the life of a group of bohemians struggling in modern day East Village New York. The story centers around Mark and Roger, two roommates. While a former tragedy has made Roger numb to life, Mark tries to capture it through his attempts to make a film. The group deals with AIDS, poverty, drugs, illness and just trying to pay the rent in the 525,600 minutes that make up a year.

June 25      The Wedding Singer, Rated PG-13; 93 minutes; 1998

Sponsored by Garage Mahaul

Starring: Adam Sandler, Drew Barrymore, Christine Taylor

In 1985, Robbie Hart is a vocalist whose rock band stubbornly refuses to get off the ground. In the meantime, he makes a living playing wedding receptions, where he meets Julia Sullivan when she's working as a waitress. He immediately takes a shine to her, but since she is engaged, he keeps his distance. In time, Robbie realizes that he needs to step in and stop Julia from marrying her obnoxious, unfaithful fiancée before the woman he's come to love ruins her life.

Sponsored by Title Boxing Club

Starring: Sylvester Stallone, Carl Weathers, Burgess Meredith

Rocky Balboa, a Philadelphia boxer, is but one step removed from total bum-hood. A once-promising pugilist, Rocky is now taking nickel-and-dime bouts and running strongarm errands for local loan sharks to survive. Even his supportive trainer, Mickey, has given up on Rocky. All this changes thanks to Muhammad Ali-like super-boxer Apollo Creed. With the Bicentennial celebration coming up, Creed must find a "Cinderella" opponent for the big July 4th bout -- some unknown whom Creed can "glorify" for a few minutes before knocking him cold.

July 16      Ferris Bueller's Day Off, Rated PG; 103 minutes; 1986

Co-Sponsored by The Kirkwood Room and Faithful Companions

Starring: Matthew Broderick, Alan Ruck, Mia Sara

Ferris Bueller (Matthew Broderick) has an uncanny skill at cutting classes and getting away with it. Intending to make one last duck-out before graduation, Ferris calls in sick, "borrows" a Ferrari, and embarks on a one-day journey through the streets of Chicago. On Ferris' trail is high school principal Rooney (Jeffrey Jones), determined to catch him in the act.
